

Weddings at First Presbyterian Church

The staff and members of First Presbyterian Church congratulate you on your plans to be married. Marriage is the occasion for the establishment of a life-long covenant between two people.

Nonmember weddings require approval from the church's governing body, the Session. The first step is to contact the Church Office at (716) 884-7250, x 10 or email@firstchurchbuffalo.org.

Facilities at First Church

The Sanctuary is a beautiful, elegant area which will seat up to 800 persons. Its ambience makes it suitable for small as well as large weddings.

Hindman Chapel is an intimate room where 80-90 persons can be accommodated comfortably.

Parking is available in the church lot off Pennsylvania Street (45-50 spaces). Ample street parking is available. First Church tenants retain parking rights at all times.

Handicapped Access is at the west entrance of the building from the church's parking lot.

Wedding Fee

Contact the Church Office for details. A wedding is not considered booked until a minister is assigned and a 10% non-refundable deposit is received.
